POLICY STATEMENT

The Langwarrin Soccer Club supports diversity and is proud to have a membership that is multi-cultural and reflective of the broader community. The Langwarrin Soccer Club is committed to an environment which promotes racial and religious tolerance by prohibiting certain conduct and providing a means of redress for victims of racial vilification and/or racial discrimination.

This policy is not a substitute for legislation but reinforces the Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001 at Club level. Under this Club policy:

No person, member, spectator, official or otherwise associated with the Club, will engage in conduct that offends, insults, ridicules, threatens, disparages, incites hatred against, or vilifies another person on the basis of their race, religion, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin.

In the event that there is an alleged breach of this policy, a referee, spectator, member, or player may lodge a complaint by (give a time frame e.g. 5.00pm the day following) to the Club President. The complaint should be in writing.

PROCEDURES

Complaints under this policy should be dealt with under the Langwarrin Soccer Club Grievance and Complaints Policy.

This policy and the complaints procedures are communicated to all members, players, spectators and officials via the club website to try to stamp out racial and religious vilification from our sport.

The policy is to be reviewed annually.
